Undergraduate Research & Creative Activity Workshops

Finding a Summer Research Opportunity

Wednesday, November 13, 7:30 PM | Berkey Hall, Room 104

There are a variety of summer opportunities available for students. Programs are hosted by colleges and universities around the United States and the world. They provide an intensive research experience on a particular topic within a scholarly discipline. For undergraduates with plans for graduate or professional school after MSU, summer research provides the opportunity to expand your professional network and acquire experience in an area of interest. In this workshop, you will learn more about summer research, the benefits of participation, and effective search strategies, including how to find and apply for opportunities.

Unpacking Your Research Experience

Tuesday, November 19, 5:30 PM | Student Services Building, Room 113

Have you thought about how the skills you are gaining through your undergraduate research experience will assist you in the future? Come learn about strategies for communicating your abilities to others, such as graduate schools and future employers. This workshop will include information about creating an elevator pitch related to your research and an opportunity visit our website <https://urca.msu.edu/events> for the full list of our workshops.
